6. “ESD proprietary information” is defined by the ESD as any information created, produced or collected by ESD staff for the business or education purposes of the ESD including but not limited to student information, staff information, parent or patron information, curriculum, forms and like items used to conduct the ESD’s business.
7. “ESD software” is defined by the ESD as any commercial or staff developed software acquired using ESD resources.

General ESD Responsibilities

The ESD will:

1. Designate staff as necessary to ensure coordination and maintenance of the ESD's electronic communications system which includes all ESD computers, e-mail and Internet access;
2. Provide staff training in the appropriate use of the ESD's electronic communications system including copies of ESD policy and administrative regulations. Staff will provide similar training to authorized system users;
3. Allow staff use of personal electronic devices to access the ESD's electronic communications system when it is consistent with ESD board policies and administrative regulations (See Staff User Agreement);
4. Cooperate fully with local, state or federal officials in any investigation relating to misuse of the ESD's electronic communications system;
5. Use only properly licensed software, audio or video media purchased by the ESD or approved for use by the ESD. The ESD will comply with the requirements of law regarding the use, reproduction and distribution of copyrighted works and with applicable provisions of use or license agreements;
6. Install and use server virus detection and removal software;
7. Provide technology protection measures that protect against Internet access by both adults and minors to visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or with respect to the use of computers by minors, harmful to minors. A supervisor or other individual authorized by the principal may disable the technology protection measures to enable access for bona fide research or other lawful purposes, as deemed appropriate;
8. Prohibit access by minors to inappropriate matter on the Internet and World Wide Web;
9. Provide staff supervision to monitor the online activities of students to prevent unauthorized access, including "hacking" and other unlawful activities online, and ensure the safety and security of minors when authorized to use e-mail, social media, chat rooms, applications and other forms of direct electronic communication;
10. Provide student education about appropriate online behavior, including cyberbullying awareness and response, and how to interact with other individuals on social networking and social media websites, applications and in chat rooms;
11. Determine which users and sites, accessible as part of the ESD's electronic communications system, are most applicable to the curricular needs of the ESD, and may restrict user access accordingly;
12. Determine which users will be provided access to the ESD's electronic communications system;
13. Program its computers to display a message reinforcing key elements of the ESD's electronic communications system policy and administrative regulation when accessed for use;

14. Notify appropriate system users that:
 - a. The ESD retains ownership and control of its computers, hardware, software and data at all times. All communications and stored information transmitted, received or contained in the ESD's information system are the ESD's property and are to be used for authorized purposes only. Use of ESD equipment or software for unauthorized purposes is strictly prohibited. To maintain system integrity, monitor network etiquette and ensure that those authorized to use the ESD's system are in compliance with Board policy, administrative regulations and law, the school administrators may routinely review user files and communications;
 - b. Files and other information, including e-mail, sent or received, generated or stored on ESD servers are not private and may be subject to monitoring. By using the ESD's system, individuals consent to have that use monitored by authorized ESD personnel. The ESD reserves the right to access and disclose, as appropriate, all information and data contained on ESD computers and ESD-owned e-mail system;
 - c. The ESD may establish a retention schedule for the removal of e-mail;
 - d. E-mail sent or received by a Board member or employee in connection with the transaction of public business may be a public record and subject to state archivist rules for retention and destruction;
 - e. Information and data entered or stored on the ESD's computers and e-mail system may be subject to disclosure if a public records request is made or a lawsuit is filed against the ESD. "Deleted" or "purged" data from ESD computers or e-mail system may be retrieved for later public records disclosure or disciplinary purposes, as deemed necessary by the ESD;
 - f. The ESD may set quotas for system disk usage. The ESD may allow system users to increase their quota by submitting a written request to the supervising teacher system coordinator stating the need for the increase;
 - g. Passwords used on the ESD's electronic communications system will be changed at 90-day intervals;
 - h. Transmission of any communications or materials related to activities prohibited by ORS 260.432 is not allowed.
15. Ensure all student, staff and non-school system users complete and sign an agreement to abide by the ESD's electronic communications system policy and administrative regulations. All such agreements will be maintained on file in the school office ;
16. Notify users of known copyright infringing activities and deny access to or remove the material.

Electronic Communications System Access

1. Access to the ESD's electronic communications system is authorized to:

Board members, ESD employees, and students in grades K-12, with parent approval and when under the direct supervision of staff, [and ESD volunteers, ESD contractors or other members of the public as authorized by the system coordinator or ESD administrators consistent with the ESD's policy governing use of ESD equipment and materials].
2. Students may be permitted to use the ESD's electronic communications system, when consistent with board policy and administrative regulations, for school and instructional related activities. Personal use of ESD-owned computers or devices including Internet and e-mail access is permitted when consistent with board policy and administrative regulations and when during the school day.

Staff and Board members may be permitted to use the ESD's electronic communications system to conduct business related to the management or instructional needs of the ESD or to conduct research related to education and when in compliance with Board policy and administrative regulations. Personal use of the ESD's system or ESD-owned computers or devices including Internet and e-mail access by ESD staff may be permitted when consistent with Oregon ethics laws, Board policy and administrative regulations.

Volunteers, and ESD contractors and other members of the public may be permitted to use the ESD's electronic communications system for personal use when consistent with Board policy, general use prohibitions and guidelines/etiquette and other applicable provisions of this administrative regulation.

General Use Prohibitions and Guidelines/Etiquette

Operation of the ESD's electronic communications system relies upon the proper conduct and appropriate use of system users. Students, staff and others granted system access are responsible for adhering to the following prohibitions and guidelines which require legal, ethical and efficient use of the ESD's system.

Telephone/Membership/Other Charges

1. The ESD assumes no responsibility or liability for any membership, phone or internet service and/or related charges incurred by any home usage of the ESD's electronic communications system.
2. Any disputes or problems resulting from phone services or internet provider services for home users of the ESD's electronic communications system are strictly between the system user and their internet service provider and/or phone service provider.

Information Content/Third Party Supplied Information

1. System users and parents of student system users are advised that use of the ESD's electronic communications system may provide access to materials that may be considered objectionable and inconsistent with the ESD's vision, mission and goals. Parents should be aware of the existence of such materials and monitor their student's home usage of the ESD's electronic communications system accordingly.
2. Opinions, advice, services and all other information expressed by system users, information providers, service providers or other third-party individuals are those of the providers and not the ESD.
3. Users of the electronic communications system may, with system coordinator approval, order services or merchandise from other vendors that may be accessed through the ESD's electronic communications system. These vendors are not affiliated with the ESD. All matters concerning merchandise and services ordered including, but not limited to, purchase terms, payment terms, warranties, guarantees and delivery are solely between the vendor and the electronic communications system user. The ESD makes no warranties or representation whatsoever with regard to any goods or services provided by the vendor. ESD staff and administration shall not be a party to any such transaction or be liable for any costs or damages arising out of, either directly or indirectly, the actions or inactions of vendors.
4. The ESD does not warrant that the functions or services performed by, or that the information or software contained on, the electronic communications system will meet the system user's requirements, or that the electronic communications system will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that defects will be corrected. The ESD's electronic communications system is provided on an "as is, as available" basis. The ESD does not make any warranties, whether express or implied including, without limitation, those of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose with respect to any services provided by the electronic communications system and any information or software contained therein.

Sample Parent Letter

Dear Parents:

Your student needs your permission to use the electronic communications system. Your student will be able to communicate with other schools, colleges, organizations and individuals around the world through the Internet and other electronic information systems/networks.

With this educational opportunity also comes responsibility. Inappropriate system use may result in discipline, up to and including expulsion from school, suspension or revocation of your student's access to the ESD's electronic communications system, and/or referral to law enforcement officials.

Although the ESD is committed to practices that ensure the safety and welfare of system users, including the use of technology protection measures such as Internet filtering, please be aware that there may still be material or communications on the Internet that ESD staff, parents and students may find objectionable. While the ESD neither encourages nor condones access to such material, it is not possible for us to eliminate that access completely.

Attached to this letter is an agreement for your student and you to read and sign stating agreement to follow the ESD's electronic communications system

1. An agreement for your student to read and sign stating his/her agreement to follow the ESD's Electronic Communications System policy and administrative regulation. This agreement requires your signature. It must be signed and renewed each year and will be kept on file at the school;
2. The ESD's Electronic Communications System policy and administrative regulation.

Please review the ESD's electronic communications system policy and administrative regulation, and the provisions therein, carefully with your student and return the attached agreement form to the [school office] indicating your permission for your student to use the ESD's electronic communications system.

Sincerely,

[System Coordinator/Administrator]

Student Agreement for an Electronic Communications System Account

Student agreement must be renewed each academic year.
